We're Igniting Momentum

Your Sponsorship Supports BETTER Mental Health Access For Everyone

Engage & Excel brings together the brightest minds in mental health for an annual event that can't be missed. Professionals throughout the country and the world have marked the date for 2022.

Its reach extends beyond traditional mental health service providers, drawing in an audience from law enforcement, health systems, community organizations and initiatives, medical experts and researchers, philanthropy, and state and local governments—as well as dynamic national and international leaders.

There have been great strides in mental health care policy and program delivery this past year, and this fall hundreds of people will again come together to celebrate that progress and lay the groundwork for future strategies and success.

Thank you for considering how you can make E&E 2022 another outstanding experience. We want you to be part of the momentum!

With Appreciation,

Coby Chase, Executive Vice President for External Affairs
Meadows Mental Health Policy Institute
